THE NEGRO ASSESSOR.

On yesterday evening, at half-past two o'clock, Edwin Belcher, the negro Assessor of Internal Revenue for the third Georgia District, and author of the incendiary letter to Charles Sumner, recently published and commented upon in the Chronicle and Sentinel, was arrested in his office in this city, on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Davis, for an alleged felony. At the same time, and at the same place, Eugene A. Corey, one of Belcher's assistant Assessors, was also arrested on the same charge as his chief—indeed, Corey is the principal in the alleged offence, while Belcher is an accessory. The charge on which Corey was arrested was willfully destroying Government papers made out by a former assistant Assessor, for the purpose of injuring the latter. The charge against Belcher was being an accessory of Corey's in the transaction. The parties accused appeared before United States Commissioner Davis, yesterday evening, at four o'clock. The Commissioner being desirous of having Col. John Milledge, the District Attorney, present at the investigation, and as the latter was sick and unable to attend, a further hearing of the case was postponed until this morning, at eleven o'clock, and the accussed released until that time upon their own recognizances. The facts connected with this case we learn to be in substance as follows:

Some time since Mr. F. M. Loftin, an Assistant Assessor, was suspended from office by the late Assessor, Col. J. W. Bowles, with, as he claims, four or five months pay still due him. Shortly after this Loftin preferred charges against Bowles and a trial was held at the Planters' Hotel before the Supervisor, M. J. Saffold, at which trial the books of Loftin and his abstracts were produced in evidence. After the investigation these books and vouchers were returned by order of Mr. Saffold to the Assessor's office. On the removal of Bowles and the installation of Belcher, Loftin applied to the latter for his salary for the time which he had served, as established by his books. Belcher replied that he could not pay him until he produced his vouchers, as the latter were not in his office.—Loftin then wrote to the Supervisor at Washington about his papers and received a reply stating that his accounts were just and that his vouchers he had returned to Belcher's office. On the receipt of this letter Loftin again called on Belcher and demanded his vouchers. Belcher replied that he had found the books but knew nothing of the vouchers. Loftin insisted that they were in the office, when Corey came forward and acknowledged that he had destroyed the missing papers and was responsible for his action. Belcher, at this, said that if Corey had destroyed them he (Belcher) would take the responsibility, as he was determined to sustain his subordinate in this action. On last Thursday Loftin again called on Belcher and asked him to sign a certificate that he had S's. books and had found them correct, as showing service rendered the Government; that the monthly lists (vouchers) have been in the possession of Corey, and that the latter acknowledged having destroyed them. This Belcher refused to do on the ground that should Loftin sue Corey for damages the signing of this certificate would make him (B.) a witness against his Assistant. Upon this Loftin took out a warrant for the arrest of the parties as above described. This case will come up before the Commissioner at eleven o'clock this morning.

THE TIME TO CUT HAY.

WOODVIEW, JEFFERSON Co., Ky., April 9th, 1869.

Lawrence Young, Esq:

DEAR SIR—In the March number of your paper you give an interesting article on the question so much in dispute among farmers, "The time to cut hay," upon which I beg to offer a few suggestions. You state that on a certain meadow in our county a portion of a good uniform crop of timothy was cut last Summer during the last week in June, the grass not quite in full bloom; a portion of five or six weeks later, the hay injured from over maturity; and portion during the intermediate space, the work being commenced on this last one week later than on the portion not in full bloom. You say further that at the time of writing (probably February, the portion of the meadow mown in June "has scarcely a living plant upon the whole space;" that in the intermediate cutting "the stand upon these parts first cut is very much injured by the dying out of the plants;" and that "the only part of the whole meadow which now promises a future crop as good as that of 1868 is the part cut after the plants were dead ripe." You infer from this that the immature cutting of the two first cut portions of the meadow caused the destruction in one case, and the injury in the other, of the plants subjected to this treatment, while the mature cutting of the dead ripe portion was probably the cause of its exemption from damage.

Allow me to state some facts which have come under my observation, and conflict somewhat with your facts, and make the deduction which I think is warranted by a consideration of them all.

The first fact I have to communicate is this: I got my timothy last year just about the time that the first of the intermediate cutting referred to by you was done—commencing (according to my farm records) about the 9th of July, and finishing by the 19th, and yet the meadow, which has been examined to day, does not appear to have been injured at all. Another fact is this: For a few years after the loss of my negroes I was compelled to cut my timothy riper than I liked, as well as to violate other maxims of good husbandry, and very soon the portion of the field which is always mown last began to show a disappearance of the timothy, and a substitution of blue-grass and weeds. The conflict between these two classes of facts can be reconciled by a theory which is, I think, fairly deducible from another fact. The drought of last Summer, though it continued for only one month, July, was characterized by such intense heat of the sun as to be almost sufficient to destory corn growing in good land. The greatest intensity in the sun's heat occurred about the middle of the month, just in time to tell upon the plants which had already experienced the vital shock given in mowing, and when the recuperative power residing in the newly formed buds in the bulb of the plants was insufficient for such a trial, and the plants succumbed—those which had been cut first, and therefore had been longer exposed to the effects of the drought, entirely; those which had been exposed for a shorter time after cutting, in part; while in the case of the dead ripe cutting in August, the drought was over before the responsibility of sustaining the life of the plant was thrown upon the buds in the bulbs, and after their powers were better developed. This greater development of the buds in the bulbs, however, did not seem sufficient to save the plants in my dead ripe cutting, for many of them died where those plants lived which had been cut earlier. I do not remember what sort of weather followed my dead-ripe cutting, but if it was excessively dry, then the drought would be most disastrous in its effects upon the least loose and fertile portions of the field, and this is the portion of my meadow which, in spite of the dead ripe cutting, has suffered most. One discrepancy alone now remains to be accounted for. The blossom-cutting in the operations you refer to suffered injury where my blossom cutting of the same year escaped. You did not describe the soil and condition as to ability to withstand drought of the meadow you speak of.—This should be known in order to make a fair comparison. My meadow is on the Bearegrass land, in tolerably good condition. Can you make the necessary explanation?

In addition to what has been said from my own experience, I would say that hay is a large article of export from the North and East, and is therefore a speciality with their farmers. Those farmers are more free to communicate their opinions and detail their experience through the papers than ours; and if they have found early cutting destructive to meadows it is strange that they are so silent about it, and that with almost one consent they recommended early cutting. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1869.

CONCILIATE! CONCILIATE!

Nothing is more desirable in all communities, than a kind, generous, conciliatory spirit—gentleness of manner and a kind, amiable temper towards every one and a careful avoidance of bitterness, recrimination and violence. Bad men even, cannot object to such an exhibition. It seems to savor of true friendship. This is especially the case when political rancour, ill feeling and severity, give place to mutual forbearance and kindly feeling in community and when such exhibitions are really sincere and honest.

"Let us have peace" coming from a man enjoying the position of Gen. Grant, would have been a God-send to the nation, if he meant what he said, and had controlled the action of his party. But taken as the watchword of the most cruel, the most wanton, the most unprincipled, the most reckless of human justice, or of mercy of any political party that has ever existed, it has been a menace and a threat to the people, to keep silence, and bear uncomplainingly, all the indignities, degradations and insults we, the conquerors, intend to heap upon you, for we intend to rule this country with a rod of iron, preparatory to the Empire That is the meaning, the real meaning of Grant's utterance, "Let us have peace."

The very marked change in the tone and temper of the Radical press and of the party in this State towards our Conservative people, has been observed by some parties and very hastily acquiesced in as an evidence of the return of good feeling and as unmistakable proof that some of the more respectable among the carpet-baggers and scallawags were coming over. The pretended exhibition of liberality on the part of Littlefield of the Standard, towards the late Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held in this city, was construed into kindness, when it is manifest, that no act of his was ever prompted by greater selfishness and more contemptible toadyism, than when he proposed to do the printing for the Convention without charge. Littlefield was guilty of a little Yankee trick in that matter, he threw his card well and hit the Convention in a tender point.

They could not in christian charity decline his offer—even the devil must be allowed to make brick to build the Church. We think the Church should before accepting his little offer of job work have required him to come in the presence of the Convention, and on his bended knees, beg the forgiveness of every man, woman and child in the State, for the unprovoked assault upon the ladies of the State in the article "Work." Now, these carpet-baggers and scallawags are urging upon our people, the interchange of kindly offices, the exhibition of a conciliatory and kind spirit, forgetfulness of the past, and wind up with the chorus "Let us have peace." If there were a spark of sincerity, real magnanimity or manliness in this, we would be forward in promoting it. We have never desired any thing but peace. We resisted every step and measure which led to the Mexican war. We thought it wicked and criminal. We resisted every step which led to the late war, and by it made ourselves odious to the war party, as we now are to the Radical party for resisting their systematic plans of villainy, corruption and fraud. We know what it costs to resist a triumphant majority bent upon spoils. We know the most intolerant despotism on earth is the despotism of party, and the more ignorant the party, the more intolerable the despotism. We have, and we now disregard, what the whole pack of despots think of us, whether they be white or black, judge or jury. We have regretted the necessity laid upon us by our position, to expose the vile wretches and their vile conduct towards the people, the ancient honor and good fame of North Carolina.

The truth is, that the profession of Radicalism—the holding of Radical principles and the advocacy of Radical policy on the part of such men as Holden, Treasurer Jenkins, Cobe Harris, Judge Dick, Judge Settle, Judge Rodman, Cantwell, Russell, Pool, Reade, Brogden, &c., &c., are memorials of their arrant hypocrisy and falsehood. Every body knows that at heart they were and are as deadly opposed to Radicalism as any of our Conservative people. But the love of filthy lucre and thirst for office, led them to abandon principle, decency and their respectable associations. They have ceased to be respectable in their own estimation, and the carpet-baggers are ceasing to respect them. We once thought that there might be here and there left among the negroes, some decency, but that is growing scarce. Howe the Penitentiary Commissioner, is the only negro we have heard of in the State, who resented the insult offered to his color, when he was told by Dr. Grissom, of the Lunatic Asylum, that he could not allow him to eat at his table with the white folks! Howe will not forget the Doctor soon nor will Howe's colored friends forget it.

But Littlefield, Holden, Dick, Tourgee, Settle, Rodman, Cantwell, Thomas, Watts, Billy Smith, &c., &c., all cry out "let us have peace." Do they want peace yet?—We think they do. They have got all the offices to be had, the control of the 30 or 40 million bonds to be issued by the State, all the fat places for themselves and their friends—the control of the State, of the counties, of the townships, of the Legislature, of the Penitentiary. Littlefield has the public printing for the next four years he thinks. Our people are so burdened with taxes they will have no means of resistance for the next four years. Hence the cry, "let us have peace." "Let us alone now for four years, until we drink the heart's blood of the State, and then we shall be ready to leave for other parts.—Let us forget the past. Let by-gones be by-gones," say they. That is the peace they desire. Like the sow, they are at the swill and do not wish to be disturbed. Shall they be let alone? Do they not merit exposure? Ought not their deeds of darkness be brought out to light? Surely let it be done, till hypocrisy, and lying and unblushing villany be driven from the State.

An amusing correspondence has taken place between Third Auditor R. W. Clarke, of the Treasury Department, and ex Confederate General Beauregard. Soon after assuming the duties of his office, Mr. Clarke discovered that the General was on his books as indebted to the Government in the sum of $10 30. Mr. Clarke thereupon notified General Beauregard of his discovery, and received the following in reply:

OFFICE OF THE NEW ORLEANS, JACKSON AND GREAT NORTHERN R. R. Co., NEW ORLEANS, May 20, 1869.

SIR: Your letter of the 1st instant has been received, informing me that I am charged on the books of your office (Third Auditor's) $10.30 on account of the Quartermaster's Department, and that I am requested to pay over said sum to the nearest disbursing quartermaster, and transmit his receipt for the same to your office. Absence from the city has prevented me from acknowledging sooner your letter. In answer to this claim I beg leave to enclose you herewith the duplicates of my account, amounting to $145.30, for transportation from West Point, N. Y., to New Orleans, La., in January and February, 1861, in obedience to War Department Order No. 12, a copy of which is herewith enclosed, marked "A," relieving me from duty as Superintendent of the United States Military Academy and sending me back to my former post at New Orleans. My account for transportation was presented for payment to Colonel D. D. Tompkins, Assistant Quartermaster General in New York, the Quartermaster Department here being out of funds at the time, on the 23rd of February, 1861; but it was not paid by him as per copy of his letter, herewith enclosed, marked "B," to the Quartermaster General at Washington. It has never yet been settled. You will, therefore, please deduct therefrom the amount ($10 30) claimed by you in your letter of the 1st instant, and remit to me the balance of $155.20 at your earliest convenience. I will remark here, for the information of your Department, that my resignation from the military service of the United States was accepted, to take effect on the 20th February, 1861.

I remain, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
G. T. BEAUREGARD.

President N. O. J. and G. N. R. R. Co.

Mr. R. W. CLARKE, Third Auditor's Office, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

The Third Auditor has written to Second Comptroller Brodhead on the subject, calling attention to the joint resolution of 1867, forbidding payment to parties who were not loyal to the Government of any claims accruing before April 13, 1861.—Nat. Intelligencer.

THE "EMPIRE" THAT IS TO BE.—As most of our readers are aware, Senator Chandler, of Michigan, just before the close of the last session, made a very belligerent and noisy speech against England, on the Alabama question, in the course of which, among other vaporous declarations, he threatened to take possession of Canada with no other help than that which would be afforded by the doughty volunteers of his own State—The speech was illtimed, and in execrable taste,—but it would now seem to have been delivered for a particular purpose,—the purpose, namely, of acquiring a sort of notoriety among the people whom he was bullying at Washington. To that end, Chandler seems to have gone to England, as soon after making his speech as possible. Doubtless, he expected to create a great sensation there, and to be pointed out, as he walked along the Strand, as "the American Senator who threatens to take Canada," etc., etc. The Senator, however, does not appear to have relied entirely upon his turgid rhetoric to duly impress Her Majesty's subjects with his self importance, for, according to a usually well-informed journal, published in his own State,—the Detroit Free Press,—

"His wife and daughter each take with them a colored female servant, and he takes two black male servants. These servants are to be fitted out while in New York with very showy livery. The coats of the men servants are to be of lavendar color, with white buttons, upon which is the Michigan coat of arms, except that the stags support the letter C., which is of red enamel, with gold edge. The female servants wear large belt buckles bearing the same design as that upon the buttons.—The hats of the men are black, with a wide purple band and a large silver cockade, in the centre of which is one of the buttons aforesaid."

We do not know whether this is "sarcasm" or not. If not, then we may reasonably conclude that the Michigan Senator is falling in, practically, with the ideas advanced by the "Imperialist," and getting ready for the approaching inauguration of the Empire, that is to be. There is nothing, Mr. Senator, like keeping up with the spirit and tendency of the times."—N. Y. Evening Express.

LETTER OF THE LAIRDS ON THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

The Messrs. Laird, builders of the "Alabama," publish a letter in the English papers, in which they claim that the building of the vessel was done in the way of business, and free of concealment; that it was known to the Government and the public, and with the knowledge of the American Minister; that the vessel was meant for war purposes and intended for the use of the Confederate Government was notorious. No haste or secrecy was observed in any of the operations. Had there been anything illegal in the building or fitting out of the ship, ample time and opportunity existed for the Government to seize her. When the officers of the custom house were informed, on the 21st of July, that she was ready for sea and might leave at any hour she pleased, no attempt was made to detain her, though Passmore and others made affidavits that men were enlisted to serve on her. They take the ground that the contract entered into for the building of the ship was not at variance with the laws of England, the opinion of the English people, or the practices of foreign nations. They quote the written opinions of Mr. Mellish, Q. C.; Mr. Kemplay, and Sir Hugh Cairns, of February, 1863, which they allege support their positions, and go to show that the Alabama left Birkenhead unarmed, and went to the Azores, to which men and arms had been sent from other ports.

THE CHARACTER OF THE PRESIDENT.

A correct understanding of these acts of the Executive can best be obtained by a consideration of his character as President. I have purposely italicised the words "as President," because, as such, the character of Grant is very different from the characters he displayed as boy, cadet, subaltern, tanner, farmer, clerk, general, and candidate, which careers and which characters have been adequately written about. Since 12 o'clock on March 4, 1869, Mr. Grant has in characteristics been wholly another sort of man than he was in any of his previous relations. In classification he should, I think, be called the Leading President, for he has in every act reposed on some one, for assistance, direction, and support. He leaned on Senator Morton when he wanted the Tenure-of-office law repealed. He then leaned on Mr. Conkling when he accepted the modification of the law. He leaned on Mr. Washburne in the original draft of his Cabinet. He leaned on the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate when they told him to nominate Mr. Motley to England. He leaned on John A. Griswold and Jackson S. Shultz when he nominated Mr. Jay to Vienna. He leaned on Mayor Bowen in making the Washington appointments. He leaned on the politicians when he selected Mr. Boutwell. He leaned on Senator Fenton in nominating Generals Merritt and Cornel, and on the Union League in nominating Mr. Grinnell, and on Horace Greeley in commissioning Postmaster Patrick Jones. He leans on General Banks in reference to Cuba, and for some time has been leaning on Mr. Sumner in reference to our English affairs.

Indeed, in every act which has been done by the President he has leaned upon somebody, and, unfortunately, like most men who do not move, but who are moved, he has been cursed by bad helpers. In this city, where the administration is enacting, the personal aspects with which every incident, every determination, and every appointment, is invested become real and graphic to the eye. What at distance seems an Executive act is here known as a Banks' act, a Fenton act, a Sumner act, according as the case may be. This suppression of the individuality of the President is attributed here to three things; the utter civil inexperience of the Chief Magistrate, his sensitive and exaggerated idea of the intricacy and delicacy of his duties, and his unconditional surrender to the furious onset which the politicians made upon him after his merely verbal assumption of independence in his inaugural. Consequently, at this period the President receives really more sympathy than criticism, now that his self helplessness is so well understood, and the remorseless servitude in which he is held appreciated. It almost passes realization to see the contrast between the energetic, self-contained General and the badgered, heedless, exhausted, confined President. The pitiable plight of General Grant is a complete argument supplied to all novices against allowing greatness to be thrust upon them. To become the comedy which he is, even to the heartless humor of the party he plays for, the tragedy of his past has been made by compulsion truly awful and heart rending.—Washington Correspondent N. Y. World.

THE COMMODORE MEADE CASE—ARREST OF MESSRS. MEIGS AND CORLIES.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.—Before Judge Clerke. Richard W. Meade vs. Charles A. Meigs and Benjamin F. Corlies, Commodore Meade, who was confined in the Lunatic Asylum by his relations, and who was released on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Sutherland, has commenced the present suit for $300,000 damages, for false imprisonment. The defendants have been arrested, and held yesterday in $5,000 bail. Following is one of the affidavits on which the order of arrest was granted:

City and County of New York ss.—Richard W. Meade, the plaintiff in this action, being duly sworn, says: That on or about the 18th day of October, 1868, at the City of New York, the above-named defendants caused the plaintiff to be arrested by a police officer, upon a false and fabricated charge of disorderly conduct, and of threatening to shoot the said Corlies, and to be taken before a police justice of said city, and to give bonds to keep the peace; that immediately upon the giving of said bonds the defendants wrongfully and maliciously caused the plaintiff to be again arrested and taken in charge by a police officer, and to be conveyed in charge of said officer to the Lunatic Asylum at Bloomingdale, upon a false, unfounded, and malicious charge of insanity, and there and there to be taken in charge by the physicians and officers of said Asylum, and to be stripped of his money, amounting to more than five hundred dollars, and of various valuable letters and papers upon his person, none of which property has since been restored to him, and to be detained, confined, and imprisoned in said Lunatic Asylum, and against his will, for the space of fifty-eight days on such false and malicious charge, during all which time he was deprived of all intercourse with his friends, altogether prevented from attending to his necessary business, and subjected to great physical and mental suffering; that the plaintiff was afterwards brought in custody, before one of the justices of the Supreme Court of this State, charged by said defendants with lunacy or insanity, and, after examination into said charge, said justice dismissed the same, and caused the plaintiff to be discharged out of custody.

That the plaintiff is about to commence, by the summons hereto annexed, an action in this court against Charles A. Meigs and Benjamin F. Corlies upon the cause of action above stated. R. W. MEADE.

Sworn to before me this 6th day of April, 1869.

John Butcher, Notary Public, New York County.

THE PENALTY FOR KILLING A BOY.—In August last, Thomas Foster, when plucking a peach from a branch of a tree, in the orchard of Henry W. Weisse, which overhung the fence, was shot dead by the proprietor of the place. In the Criminal Court yesterday a jury assessed the punishment of Weisse at three months' imprisonment and a fine of $100. The defence offered was merely as to the character of the defendant; but as to the killing, no material variation was established as to the facts from the account furnished by the State's witnesses. It was premeditated, for the defendant borrowed the gun from a neighbor and previously said, according to testimony, he would "pepper" any parties he caught stealing his peaches, and so a light-hearted boy was shot dead when pulling a peach without any attempt to conceal the act. There was no adequate provocation, and if the crime has any legal appellation, it is murder in the second degree; but, under the indictment, the State was compelled to proceed as if for manslaughter in the second degree.

An "intelligent" jury seem to see little guilt in the act that threw the rural district where it was committed into a tumult last fall, and imposed the lightest penalty possible. Such verdicts afford a curious commentary on that system which is considered so perfect.—St. Louis Republican.

STATE NEWS.

TRAGEDY IN JONES COUNTY—DEATH OF SHERIFF COLGROVE AND SEVERE WOUNDING OF A NEGRO MAN.—The city was thrown into a state of excitement, yesterday afternoon, by the arrival of a messager from Jones county, with the intelligence that Sheriff Colgrove had been killed and a negro man severely wounded, by a party or parties unknown. The particulars, as far as they have transpired, are as follows:

Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, Colgrove, accompanied by a negro man, left his residence for Trenton, three miles distant. When about half way to the village a volley is supposed to have been fired into the wagon in which the two were riding, killing the Sheriff instantly, and dangerously wounding the negro. Shortly after the tragic occurrence Colgrove was found in the middle of the road, with a bullet through his brain and another through his breast. The negro had his arm broken by a ball and a gunshot wound in his breast. He is in a precarious condition.

We were afterwards shown a dispatch from Deputy Sheriff Shipp, announcing the death of Sheriff Colgrove—without giving any of the particulars, and stating that the ("trooly loil") militia had been turned out and were in full pursuit of his slayers. Who they were was not stated.

Many conjectures were afloat in the city, yesterday, regarding the persons who committed the deed; but there was only one opinion regarding the person killed, and that was that a bad man had gone to render his account to his Maker. Sheriff Colgrove has committed many high handed acts and outrages since he began the administration of his office, grinding the people of Jones in the dust by the aid of his base minions. Time and again has he been warned that such a course long persisted in, would lead to his destruction; but unheeding the remonstrances of even his political friends he pressed onward in the obnoxious course he had marked out, and we now behold the result. That the deed was a dastardly one we are frank to admit; but that it was unprovoked we emphatically deny. Even his political friends—his personal ones are hard to find—admit this, and speak of him as a tyrannical and unscrupulous officer.

It is not our intention to defend the deed—we condemn it. Nothing short of self-preservation should induce men to take the lives of others, and then never by secret assassination. Yet the provocation was great.

Who were the murderers? Colgrove's enemies were legion, and of all parties and and colors, and thus it is impossible to single out any one whose personal animosity would induce him to commit so lamentable a breech of the law. Col. Nethercutt's murderers have never been discovered, nor have those of the Foscue family. Naturally the inference is that the same parties killed Sheriff Colgrove. Some think that it was the "horse thieves," but they do not say who the "horse thieves" are. Others charge the deed to the people of Jones county; but it is barely possible than seven or eight thousand persons should lay in wait for two men and no one know anything about it.—Therefore, it may be that when the murderers of Col. Nethercutt and the Foscue family are found, then will the law have in its possession the murderers of Orson R. Colgrove, and not before.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

AN ATTRACTION.—Among other attractions for the purpose of drawing a large congregation to day, one of the colored preachers has given notice that he will furnish all persons attending his church with a fish apiece. He will doubtless be heard by a large crowd.—Journal of Commerce, May 30th.

BLOODY ASSAULT.—Ezekiel Williams, colored, was brutally assailed by a negro woman named Abba Sellers, last night, and badly cut about the face and head by a butcher's knife and garden hoe. The woman was arrested.—Ib.

CONSOLIDATION EXCURSION.—We are requested to state that the passage on the excursion to Morehead City from Newbern on the occasion of the railroad consolidation meeting in that place will be free from Tuesday until Thuraday. To Newbern and return one fare will be charged.—Wilmington Journal.

ARRIVED.—The steamship Empire, Capt. Price, arrived in port from New York yesterday.—Wil. Jour.

CLEARED.—The steamship Volunteer, Capt. Jonis, cleared last evening for New York, having arrived but the evening previous.—Wil. Jour., May 30th.

SUMMER EXCURSIONS—RAILROAD TICKETS.—Col. S. L. Fremont, Superintendent of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, advertises that tickets can be purchased to the various Summer resorts in this State and to the Virginia Springs for one fare.—The tickets will be good until the 15th of October. This is a matter of considerable importance to those who are in the habit of leaving the "heat and dust of the city" for the season.—Wil. Jour.

ALEXANDER COUNTY.—The people of Alexander county will vote, on the 10th of June, upon a proposition to make a county subscription of $30,000 to the stock of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad. Polls will be opened on that day at the several precincts in the county. Those in favor will vote: "For Subscription"—and those opposed will vote: "Against Subscription."—Statesville American.

The time for the citizens of Iredell to vote upon the question of a county subscription of $50,000 in the Plaster Banks & Salt Works Railroad, has not yet been determined by the Board of Commissioners, but will probably be early in August.—States. Amer.

James H. Abrams, charged with rape, has not as yet succeeded in giving security, and is therefore still imprisoned.—Wil. Star.

TOO HOT FOR HIM.—The Nasheville Union says that Parson Brownlow is disgusted with Washington and wants to give up his place in the Senate to Horace Maynard, in order to be made Governor of Tennessee again. The idea that Washington is too hot a place for the Parson is pretty good evidence that brimstone and faggots will have to be pilled up in extra quantities in the other place in order to make it all comfortable for him when he gets there.

A collision occurred in Norfolk harbor Monday, between the Bay Line steamer Louisiana and the ferry boat Norfolk. Some property, but no person damaged.

ROBERT SOUTTER, OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,
respecting the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3.25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:
For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	3 50

☞ The Drawing will certainly take place on the above mentioned day, and the property drawn will be delivered to the holders of prize tickets, at the time and place of drawing

☞ Maj. JAMES H FOOTE, JOHN W. HARRISON, Dr. MCCLINTOCK, CYRUS P. MENDENHALL and SION H. ROGERS, well-known citizens of North Carolina, have been appointed a Board of Supervisors, who will inspect the tickets and place them in the wheels, conduct the Drawing, and see that the interests of all are cared for, whether present or absent.

☞ Persons at a distance can send Post Office orders, or money by Express, for tickets with postage stamp.

J. C. HESTER, Secretary.

"Explanatory Drawing."—The Drawing by the Real and Personal Estate Agency, anxiously looked for by persons who had taken stock, came off on Saturday, according to published programme. The weather was weeping, but the expectant people were not deterred by that, and went in numbers to Tucker Hall to watch the operation. A good deal of excitement was caused when the owners of lucky tickets claimed their prizes as their number was drawn.

J. M. Blair, Esq., of the Yarborough House, drew the $650 piano; Mr. Wesley Whitaker drew a $50 china set, and Mrs. Pepper, wife of the caterer, drew a 3½ hearth rug. Very many of the tickets were sold out of town, and we have not the names of the holders. Every one was satisfied with the arrangements of the drawing, and this augurs well for the grand drawing of which this is explanatory."—Standard.

BY-LAWS.

SEC. 10. The plan of drawing shall be as follows: there shall be two wheels, one a prize wheel and one a number wheel, arranged in some public place in the city, where any one holding a ticket may be present on the day of drawing. In the number wheel there shall be as many tickets corresponding in number as those which have been sold. In the prize wheel there shall be as many tickets as there are prizes, these tickets shall be deposited in the wheels by a board of supervisors, who shall be appointed by the Directors, after which the wheel shall be sealed up and placed in any bank in the city, the Director's may direct, until the time of drawing, when the supervisors shall bring the wheels to the drawing, break the seals and the drawing shall be disposed of by taking a ticket from each wheel, at the same time and the prize ticket taken from the prize wheel shall designate the prize drawn by the ticket corresponding in number to the one taken from the number wheel at the same time. The wheel shall be well shaken after each ticket is drawn.

SEC. 11. The Directors shall designate the time and place of drawing, at which time and place the supervisors shall be required to be present and see that the drawing is conducted strictly equitable.

A Board of Supervisors, will be appointed who will have exclusive control and management of the drawing. They will conduct the distribution and see that each person is legally invested with the property he may draw. A duplicate registry of the tickets sold will be kept; so that, in the event of loss of ticket, the accident may be remedied and no one can be cast out.

The Drawing will take place in TUCKER HALL in the City of Raleigh, immediately after sale of tickets,—of which due notice will be given.

The Company is working under the provisions of a special Charter granted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, which compels the Company to comply faithfully with all contracts.

Copies can be had on application to the Company.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Splendid stock of Spring and Summer Goods, at Primrose, Petty & Newsom's.

Nails, Soaps, Coffee and Sugars, &c., at Upchurch & Dodd's.

Meeting of the Hillsboro' Coal Mining and Transportation Company, at Greensboro', on the 13th July.

ACCEPTABLE.—Yesterday afternoon just as we were going to press, we received from Messrs. Pool and Uzzle, a couple of packages of superior Durham smoking tobacco, manufactured by W. Duke and Son, at Durham's.

The tobacco is really a No. 1 article, and we advise all lovers of the weed to call at Messrs. Pool and Uzzle's and supply themselves if they wish to enjoy a good smoke.

JESSE W. COLE.—We had a visit from this gentleman, on yesterday. Mr. Cole was for several years the Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange. He lost one leg at the battle of Coal Harbor. Mr. Cole lost no energy with his leg, for he does now, with one leg, more than some men with two.

RUFFIN BADGER INSTITUTE.—The Annual Exercises will take place June 11th, 1869. The Annual Address will be delivered by Jno. Manning Jr., Esq., of Pittsboro', N. C.

CITY TAXES.—Mr. Whitson, the City Collector, gives notice that he is ready to receive the City taxes. He says there is much money needed, among other things to build the market! We suppose the $30,000 bonds will be enough for that, although it is said that the Commissioners have awarded the building to a contractor whose bid exceeded that of another $7,000! Now that $7,000 would go very far towards supporting the city for a year. Ought not tax payers to keep an eye on the movements of these Commissioners? Where are the bonds? Who has them for sale? Let every thing pertaining to these matters be brought to the light. Let the bonds be made to bring the highest possible price. The security is ample and the risk is nothing.—Eight per cent. twenty years Raleigh city bonds, is the best investment in the market.

OH! THE TROUBLES OF STATE.

It takes the Governor a long time to settle the business of Attorney General. He went North only for a little recreation; yet his mind must be perplexed—first, to get Coleman to resign, then to get a successor for that walking demijohn. Then comes telegrams asking the pardon of convicted leaguers, with whom he has taken secret oaths. Oh! the troubles of little men in high stations!

STORMY.

Last evening we had a refreshing rain accompanied with much wind. The wind was so violent as to split several of our pretty elms, and smong them one before Blair's door. The oaks of the Capitol Square stood as firm as Pilgrim Ashley when he fought the Supreme Court for their room.

A negro accounts for it by saying that it's things going wrong by reason of the absence of the Governor. Come home "beloved."

GOVERNOR HOLDEN TO CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON: "I'll be d——n if my officers go to jail until you go over the dead bodies of my militia."

Chesterfield as to swearing: "Those who addict themselves to it, and interlard their discourses with oaths, can never be considered as gentlemen. They are generally people of low birth and education, and are unwelcome in what is called good Company. It is a vice that has no temptation to plead, but in every respect as vulgar as it is wicked."

We hope quotations from Chesterfield will not offend the Governor, as they did his Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum, Dr. Grissom.

When Littlefield does the Church printing, it is time the Governor should quit his "cursing."

The Herald, in vulgar parlance, seems to be "going back" on Grant,—else why such random shots as these:

"Grant and Johnson came in collision while the latter was in office, and the difference between them came down at last to a point of veracity, which was determined in favor of Grant by the majority, rather on general principles than specific facts. But in view of a short experience of Grant in office, will not that difference stand a new examination?

* * * * *

Grant's vindictive attention to everybody who held office under Johnson, for that reason, merely, is an indication of a small spirit. He has no more reason to assume that everybody who held office under Johnson is corrupt than the next President will have to assume that everybody who held office under Grant was his cousin."—N. Y. Express.

The Pittsburg Commercial, Philadelphia Inquirer, and other Radical papers in Pennsylvania, are frightened at the prospects of defeat in the fall election, and are beseeching for reform in the party ranks. The Inquirer says:

"The steagth of the two parties in Philadelphia, and even throughout the State are so nearly balanced that the victory will rest absolutely upon the character of the men selected. The people have grown tired of corruption, misrule, extravagance and party hacks. They demand honesty, intelligence, economy and men of character for the various positions in their gift, and the Convention may as well understand that if they nominate bad or indifferent candidates, they cannot expect to have the sympathy or the support of the press.—They must, in that event, provide for the election of their friends without its aid.—As for ourselves, we shall give our influence where it will best serve the interests of the whole people.—N. Y. World.

"Telescopic hats" are now displayed in hatters' show cases. Perhaps the name was suggested by the "microscopic bonnets" so much in fashion among the ladies."

CONFISCATED REBEL PROPERTY.—The National Intelligencer says: Secretary Boutwell proposes to have the returns of the sales of confiscated property in the rebel States overhauled, as it is rumored that some of the United States officials have neglected to pay receipts from sales into the Treasury. The officials in Virginia have been especially forgetful about settling their accounts, and it may appear that some of them have purchased confiscated property, sold under their authority at low prices, and then pocketed the scanty proceeds.

THE wheat crop in this section is looking finely. If the rest of the season proves propitious, the Valley of Virginia will yield a larger crop than we have had since the war.—Shenandoah Valley.

The French Atlantic Cable, it is announced, will be completed by the 1st of June, only one hundred and seventy miles of the line having to be made. The "Great Eastern," with the cable aboard, and with the tenders, will leave Sheerness, near the mouth of the Thames, on June 16th, and after coaling at Portland, will proceed to Brest. From thrat the "Great Eastern" will immediately start for St. Pierre, off New Foundland, while two other ships will sail for St. Pierre and Duxbury, Massachusetts. The land line from Duxbury to New York is already in course of construction.

WHAT OF BORIE?—Borie, through the shadow of Admiral Porter in the Navy Department, appears to be something more than a shadow outside. The Allentown, (Pa.) Democrat says of him as the advocate of an empire as follows:

"Knowing the effect of acknowledging the fact that the imperialist, the monarchial organ, lately established in New York, is published by leading Radicals, high in Grant's favor, the petty politicians and little papers are denying it. The simple fact in regard to this matter is, the money to establish that paper was furnished by Borie, of Philadelphia, one of the members of Grant's Cabinet—Secretary of the Navy.—It is edited by men holding official positions under Grant in Washington and New York; and one of the members of his staff is the managing editor. And more, this paper, the Imperialist, that is now advocating the entire abrogation of even the forms of Republican Government on this continent, and the crowning of an Emperor, has within the few weeks been recognized as the official organ of the "Grand Army of the Republic," a radical soldier organization, whose chief is John A. Logan, Radical member of Congress from Illinois.—N. Y. Express.

A correspondent of a Cincinnati paper, having interviewed Ben Wade, reports the old Ohio war-horse as giving the following statement of the reason why Mr. Grant don't love him:

Well I think he was a little opposed to me on account of my views about West Point. I'm down on that little aristocracy—a sort of close corperation; it is wholly unlike the French and other continental systems. It is like the English system, where all is done by favoritism, and promotion from the rank is impossible. The whole thing is anomalous in our government, as I have told Grant so, and I think he don't like it.—N. Y. World.

A drunken Indian, on visiting the city, having strayed from his hotel, found himself lost on trying to return to it. After looking about in strange lodges here and there, the Indian exclaimed in dismay, "Injun lost!" But, recovering himself, and unwilling to acknowledge such short-sightedness, continued, drawing himself up: "No, Injun not lost—wigwam lost—and, striking his breast—Injun here!"—Charlotte Observer.

SPANISH MEN-OF-WAR LOOKING OUT FOR THE ARMS OF THE ARAGO AND PIERROT—MEN AND MUNITIONS OF WAR READY TO SAIL FROM INAGUA.

By the arrival of the Eothian from Barracoa, Cuba, at this port yesterday, we learn the following reported facts in relation to the expedition which left this port. The Eothian left Barracoa on the 14th instant:

"Three Spanish men of-war were cruising round the coast for the purpose of seizing a number of small vessels, which were expected to leave Inagua with arms for Cespedes. The arms were reported to have been shipped on the Pierrott, from New York, and they are to be taken in boats to the main land on the eastern portion of the island, about four hours' sail. The Spanish fleet has established a blockade at Barracoa, but it is not of a rigid character. A report was received shortly before the departure of the Eothian that skirmishing had taken place between the insurgents and a detachment of Spanish troops, outside of Havana, but the former retreated. No Northern negroes are permitted to go ashore at Barracoa; but the Spanish planters have armed a number of their slaves, to protect the town. One of the planters, Petquo, is an African, and he has, it is said, placed arms in the hands of all his slaves. The insurgents have nearly destroyed the town of Santiago. The officers of the Spanish men-of-war off the coast have received instructions that the men and munitions of war taken on board the Arago would probably try to land at a point thirty-five miles east of Barracoa, and a vessel has been sent to look out for them.

HAVANA, May 28.—The Spanish gunboat Austria reports that while cruising in the neighborhood of Cuba she saw a suspicious looking three masted steamer. The Austria immediately gave chase and fired her guns for the purpose of bringing the vessel to; but she noisted the American flag and continued on her course.

Captain General Dulce to-day telegraphed to Spain, asking to be immediately relieved of the Captain Generalship of Cuba.

The steamer Liberty arrived here to-day from Baltimore.

TERRIBLE STORM IN WEST VIRGINIA—IMMENSE DAMAGE DONE.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 28.—About three o'clock this afternoon the most terrific rain and hail storm ever known in this vicinity passed over this city, lasting about twenty minutes. The hail stones were as large as eggs, and some were as large as a man's fist. The number of panes of glass broken are estimated by thousands. The losses of two hotels alone amount to $2,000. The vineyards on the island and the hills surrounding the city are greatly injured, and the fruit and shade trees are torn up by the roots or completely stripped of their foliage. The iron roof of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad depot was blown off. Many accidents are reported, but no lives were lost. The belt of the storm did not extend more than a mile above the city. The loss is variously estimated from $20,000 to $50,000.

DESTRUCTIVE EFFECTS OF THE STORM IN THE WESTERN STATES.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The storm which prevailed all Wednesday night and yesterday, up to this morning, did much damage to the crops, railroad tracks, &c., in many parts in the North and West, and more particularly in the North and West.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURN.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

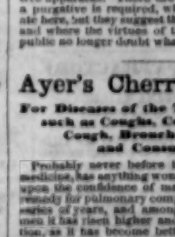
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but effective purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a most reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a larger dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for indipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

HOMEWARD.

It is the time when birds are calling
Each to his mate, his sweetheart mate.
When airs are sweet with blossoms falling,
And Spring is waxing warm and late;
And care is grown a heavy thralling
That keeps me from my fair estate.

For in the old familiar places
Doth Nature list, for me doth list,
And in the wood's untrodden spaces
Are pathways where my feet are missed,
And thick, starry flower-faces
That watch for me to keep a tryst.

Sweet valleys that the sky stoops over
So tenderly, so tenderly,
And hill-sides where the whitening clover
Already tempts the roving bee,
My heart is still your faithful lover,
Remembering charms none else will see.

The robin is my younger brother;
Blackbird and jay, sparrow and wren,
Each year to greet the dear old mother
Come all the children home again:
She calls to me, "I miss no other,
Ah, why so long in haunts of men?"

She knows my heart could never wrong her
She calls me so, she drawe me so:
I feel the old spells growing stronger,
Aside the heavy weight I throw.
I can not bide in exile longer,
Home to the meadows let me go.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.
Amount insured, $10,005,550.00
Total Premiums, 350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 630
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 325
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 "
this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

Feb 11-tf J. A. JONES, Raleigh, N. C.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA R. & G. R. R.!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come, $60,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES
WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the above places is within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all effects, from the finest lace to the coarsest. For plainness it is invaluable, as it does not rub them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the boiler, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler and soon be refunded in the SAVING OF LIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
